

The 'Speak Out Stay Safe Crew' have been thinking about their role on the playground and how a child may be feeling when they are outside at break or lunchtimes. Do you think they are right?

What is the role of the 'Speak Out Stay Safe' crew on the playground?

- To care about others and be a good listener
- To help children feel safe and happy
- To encourage people to tell others what is wrong and give advice
- To empathise
- To solve problems
- To ensure there is no bullying

What makes a child feel safe on the playground?

- When they have people to talk to
- People you trust - teachers / teaching assistants / dinner ladies
- People to play with
- Being secure - gates / fences / barriers
- Having lots of friends
- Buddies
- Playing games

What might make a child feel unsafe on the playground?

- Adults that do not listen
- Rudeness from others
- Not enough teachers on the playground
- Not having any friends to play with
- Having no one to talk to
- No games
- When the playground is over crowded
- People in the park
- Name calling from other people
- When teachers do not listen and are unfair
