

Henry VIII Fact and Opinions

Henry VIII was born on 28th June 1491 at the Palace of Placentia.

He was the most remarkable man to sit on the throne of England.

He was so greedy that all the riches in the world would not be enough for him.

He had six wives but only had three children who could inherit the throne.

Anne Boleyn and Katherine Howard were both executed at the Tower of London.

Henry VIII died in 1547 with his nine- year old son inheriting the throne.

Throughout the centuries, Henry has been praised and reviled, but never ignored.

Fact	Opinion