

The areas that you can see in red are the coast lines where Great White Sharks commonly hunt and live.

Great white sharks live in the sea. They live near the coast, in all warm waters. These sharks always remain in warmer waters. The warm climate helps to keep their bodies warm, which means they have more energy to hunt for longer periods and dive deeper to search for larger prey.

