

In 1595, Walter Raleigh set off on his expedition to El Dorado (allegedly the City of Gold.) Follow his journey to Trinidad where he failed to find the City of Gold and returned to England a failure.

Label the countries and colour them in to identify them. Draw a line between each one to track his journey.

United Kingdom

Portugal

Sailed near the Canary Islands

Trinidad

Once you have found these places on the map, identify the ocean he would have sailed across to reach his destinations. Label them and colour in the ocean.