

Elizabeth I Modelled Piece

Rich jewels are placed upon her red, twisted hair which glisten and shine. Elizabeth I's pale as snow skin looks luminous therefore her dark, enchanting eyes stare with confidence. Her hooked, long nose sits upon her face proudly and beneath this full, red lips hide a smile. Thin and pointed, her dress is adorned in expensive treasures and created from expensive cloth. Her nimble and elegant hands rest on a globe showing her power over Europe.

To be such a powerful Queen, Elizabeth was cunning and clever. As a woman ruling England, she had to be fierce and demand respect from her courtiers. Her love for her people was clear as she protected them as a mother would protect her child. She was married to England. Dancing and singing were some of her favourite things to do and she sang beautifully. She was stylish and strong, creating a warrior Queen that defended her country with determination.
