

I am so fast, I could win any race! Although, I must admit that my legs do get a bit achy with all of the running that I do.

Well, I am definitely not very speedy I am afraid and anyway it's not all about winning you know Mr Cheetah! It is the taking part that counts!

Hey, at least you guys have legs. I live my life in the ocean and I doubt I will ever get to go for some nice fish and chips on land.

Well, I think you should all stop complaining. I don't even have any bones and I am named after a popular wobbly children's dessert.
